8. Pre-Dispute Arbitration Agreement

This Accommodation Form contains a pre-dispute arbitration clause. By signing the Accommodation Form, I am signing an arbitration agreement. Under this agreement the parties agree as follows:

- (A) All parties to this agreement are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed.
- (B) Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party’s ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited.
- (C) The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings.
- (D) The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their awards.
- (E) The panel of arbitrators will typically include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.
- (F) The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court.
- (G) The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendments thereto, shall be incorporated into this agreement.

I agree that all controversies that may arise between us concerning any order or transaction, or the continuation, performance or breach of this or any other agreement between us, whether entered into before, on or after the date I make an investment in an offering in which you serve as dealer manager, shall be determined by arbitration before a panel of independent arbitrators set up by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. I understand that judgment upon any arbitration award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

No person shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, nor seek to enforce any pre-dispute arbitration agreement against any person who has initiated in court a putative class action; or who is a member of a putative class who has not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putative class action until: (i) the class certification is denied; or (ii) the class is decertified; or (iii) the customer is excluded from the class by the court. Such forbearance to enforce an agreement to arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this agreement except to the extent stated herein.

TERRA CAPITAL MARKETS, LLC

BCP DISCLOSURE STATEMENT TO CUSTOMERS

October 9, 2015

RE: Terra Capital Markets, LLC's ("Terra") Business Continuity Plan

Dear Investor:

Please be advised that we at Terra have developed a business continuity plan ("BCP") in the event of a significant business disruption ("SBD"). We anticipate two different kinds of SBDs, internal and external. Internal SBDs affect only our ability to communicate and do business, such as a fire in our building. External SBDs, on the other hand, prevent the operation of the securities markets or the ability of a number of broker/dealer firms to transact business, such as:

- a terrorist attack;
- a city flood; or
- a wide-scale, regional disruption of some other kind, such as a power outage.

Our response to an external SBD relies more heavily on other organizations and systems which we do not control, than our response to an internal SBD.

Because we do not maintain accounts or hold funds or securities for you or our other customers, our BCP is more limited than it would be if we were a full service broker/dealer. However, in the event of an internal or external SBD, if telephone service is available our registered persons will call and assist you and our other customers in accessing information regarding your funds and securities from the REIT or direct participation program in which you and our other customers invested through us. We will also call and assist the other broker/dealers which participated in a selling group for which we served as dealer-manager with regard to the investments of their customers in those REITs and direct participation programs. If we have a website, this information will also be made available on our website.

We rely on the REIT or direct participation program that we sold to deliver the cash distributions from the investment to you and the other investors in the program. Also, because the REIT and direct participation programs we sold usually do not issue certificates to the investors, there are usually no certificates to deliver. If certificates are issued by the REIT or direct participation program, however, then we rely on the REIT or direct participation program to deliver the certificate to you and the other investors.

With respect to any ongoing offering, we receive subscriptions and checks from prospective investors and the broker/dealers which participate in the offering as selling group members when we are the dealer-manager, via fax, e-mail, overnight courier service and mail. If an SBD, either internal or external, occurs during an ongoing offering then we will continue to receive subscriptions and checks through any of those methods that are available and reliable. As communications permit, we will inform prospective investors and the broker/dealers what options they have to send their subscriptions and checks to us. Notwithstanding the above, during an SBD, you and the broker/dealer may be directed by us to send the subscriptions and checks directly to the escrow agent and/or issuer if the minimum subscriptions have been received. The escrow agent or issuer will then copy the subscription agreements and checks and send the copies to us, by whatever means is available, for a suitability determination and processing.

It is difficult to estimate how long it will take us to recover from SBDs of varying intensities (such as a significant disruption to our building, our business district, our city, or the whole region in which we are situated) and resume business. However, we do intend to stay in business.

Our BCP covers many areas of our business,¹ including our emergency contact persons, who are the undersigned and Mr. Michael Cardello.

If you have any questions concerning our BCP, or would like to receive a copy of it, please contact the undersigned.

Sincerely,

TERRA CAPITAL MARKETS, LLC

Stephen H. Hamrick
